WORLD OF DANCE
 MONTREAL

A key choreographer and dancer on the Quebec scene, BadKass stands out with her current and powerful signature. Specialized in urban dance, she creates, performs, and inspires with a striking style rooted in performance and authenticity!

ABOUT

Founded in 2008, World of Dance has grown from a single event to an internationally renowned competition showcasing the most exceptional dance teams from around the world. This event is now called World of Dance Summit.

For a chance to participate in this prestigious event, join us at World of Dance Montreal, a competition that celebrates boundless creativity and qualifies your team to participate in the World of Dance Summit in Anaheim! This is where the finalist teams will have the opportunity to share their passion and talent with the rest of the world by performing for a chance to earn the prestigious title of World Champion.

WORLD OF DANCE SUMMIT

INVITATION TO WORLD OF DANCE SUMMIT

All teams with 5 or more members will have the opportunity to participate in World of Dance Summit, regardless of their ranking or score. Here is the competition process for the World of Dance Summit:

- Challenger Round: Teams with a Bell Curve score of 89.99 or lower
- Championship Round: Teams with a Bell Curve score of 90 or higher
- World Finals: The top ten teams from each division that participated in the Championship Round will compete in the World Finals.

Schools must ensure that all participants and accompanying adults have a valid passport before participating in World of Dance Montreal.

At the end of the World of Dance Montreal competition, participants will receive an invitation to the World of Dance Summit. A representative will be available to assist schools with travel arrangements but will not be responsible for travel or related expenses.

DATE AND LOCATION

World of Dance Summit 2026 will be held from July 7-10, 2026, at the Anaheim Convention Center, 800 W Katella Ave, Anaheim, CA 92802, USA.

JUGE

MELVIN TIMTIM

Melvin Timtim is an internationally recognized choreographer who began his career at a young age and has since taught and performed around the world.

He is the founder and creator of S-Rank, a Los Angeles-based team that became World Champions in the adult division at Hip Hop International, as well as Upper Team Division Champions on NBC's World of Dance (Season 2).

Melvin is also an Emmy-nominated choreographer and has taught in countries including China, Canada, Mexico, France, Turkey, India, Russia, and Singapore.

S-Rank is now recognized as one of the most influential teams in the global hip-hop scene, performing worldwide.

JUGE

VINCENT DESJARDINS

Vincent Desjardins is a Canadian choreographer recognized for his work on both national and international stages.

His career took off when he won the title of Male Winner of Season 2 of « So You Think You Can Dance Canada », which quickly propelled him into the dance industry.

Since then, he has collaborated as a choreographer on several major television and stage productions, and has also collaborated with Cirque du Soleil on multiple occasions.

In 2011, he founded District Cinq, a dance studio dedicated to artistic creation and the development of dancers.

In 2023, his troupe Conversion won Season 2 of Canada's Got Talent, further highlighting the impact of his work in the dance community.

JUGE

LYLE BENIGA

Lyle grew up in the DMV area and moved to Los Angeles to pursue a dance career. He has worked with top artists like Justin Timberlake, Usher, Chris Brown, BTS, Jennifer Lopez, Justin Bieber, Christina Aguilera, Missy Elliott, and Black Eyed Peas.

He's performed on major stages including the Grammys, AMAs, BET Awards, MTV VMAs, Saturday Night Live, Superbowl, Oscars, and in the film "Fame", also contributing choreography.

Internationally recognized as a dancer, teacher, and choreographer, Lyle continues to create content and train the next generation of performers. He is a pioneer, tastemaker, and unstoppable force.

JUGE

NICOLAS ARCHAMBAULT

Nicolas Archambault is a multidisciplinary performer, choreographer, and director working at the intersection of stage and screen. Originally from Québec, he shines both locally and internationally.

He rose to prominence after winning the very first season of So You Think You Can Dance Canada, helping bring Québec's dance scene to an international spotlight.

From film (Sur le rythme), to television (Les Dieux de la Danse, Danse with the Stars), to international tours and collaborations with pop icons such as Madonna and Janet Jackson, his career is both rich and impactful.

Trained in jazz, street, ballroom, and contemporary, Nicolas has developed a powerful, cinematic movement language rooted in emotion and storytelling.

On stage, on screen, or behind the scenes, he brings a bold and distinctive vision to every project.

JUGE

JOHANNA APARICIO

State-certified dance teacher, director of EDJA, choreographer and founder of the TATAKI Company, Johanna is a visionary and influential artist.

With her choreography TATAKI, she earned several prestigious distinctions, including the title of 2024 World Champion at the World of Dance Summit in Los Angeles.

An internationally recognized professional dancer, she stands out for her creativity, discipline, and powerful artistic presence.
